Worbis (Germany).

May 9th.

Gentlemen,

Your Club has been mentioned to me by M^r. Bardeleben - Berlin.

I am in possession of some 200 Mark-Aluminium-Pieces and 500 " " " " , and have a mind to sell them.
You would greatly oblige me

You would greatly oblige me by telling me if there is any chance of profitably doing so in America and if so, in that case, could be so bold as to ask for Your kind intermediation.

Verte!

Misery and distress are great and general in Germany, and people are universally obliged to avail themselves of all possibilities of getting some money.

You will, therefore, kindly excuse what may appear to be obtrusive, - tout savoir, c'est tout pardonner - ;
with due respect,

I remain, Gentlemen,

Yours truly
Tietjens,
Ticrargt.

Am returning coins
there is so demand for them over here as many have already been sent over here.
